Virginia Legislature.

In the Senate on Monday, bills were reported, amending and re-enacting the 10th section of chapter 83 of the Code, so as to equalize the salaries of the Professors of the University. Amending and re-enacting "an act establishing a colonization board and making an appropriation for the removal of free negroes from the Commonwealth," passed April 6,

By this amendment the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the 1st and 2d Auditors, and their successors, and four other persons to be appointed by the Governor are constituted a board for carrying out the provisions of the act. They are to be styled the Colonization Board. They are to make a biennial report to the General assembly of the names, ages to learn, has been greatly improved by the ported from the Commonwealth, and the names of the places from which they may be so transported, and such other facts and suggestions as they may think proper. An annual tax of one dollar is to be levied on every free negro of 21 years of age.

Also that when a free negro is transported to the coast of Africa by the Virginia Colonization Society, the said board are required to issue their warrant for such sums of the War of 1812, have, also, appointed a demoney as may be necessary for transporting putation to represent them in Richmond, on and subsisting such transported negro for a limited time in Africa; provided the whole sum for any one year shall not exceed Mr. Jenkins introduced a resolution from $15,000, and not more than $60 be appropriated for any one negro. A resolution was offered providing for the ners for the Commonwealth.

Petitions were presented from certain citizens of Harrisonburg, against the passage of a bill to extend the corporate limits of that town; and from citizens of Prince William, for a change in the road laws of the State. The Committee of Finance made a report authorizing the Board of Public Works to settle with Selden, Withers & Co., by charging them only with the par value and interest on the six per cent. bonds, and a proportional value and interest on the 5 per cent. ninety days, to enter into an arrangement with the Board of Public Works for the payment in eash, on or before the 18th of January, 1659, of one half the amount due by them to the State, which is to be placed to the credit of the internal improvement fund; and for the payment of the residue, with all costs, expenses, &c., on or before the 30th September, 1859.
